

Module #2 Assessment Questions

1. Which of the following is not a benefit of a tree with a quality structure?
 - A) High potential of survival
 - B) Faster rate of establishment
 - C) Less liability
 - D) Financially costly

2. Storm failure is likely to occur to a tree with:
 - A) Evenly spaced branches
 - B) Roots that grow away from the trunk of the tree
 - C) Codominant trunks
 - D) Included bark
 - E) Both C and D

3. Circling/girdling root systems can be avoided.
 - True
 - False

4. Proper mulching can reduce the risk of circling/girdling roots.
 - True
 - False

This module, a part of the Strengthening our Community Tree Canopy Through Education, was made possible by a grant through the 2011 National Urban and Community Forestry Grant Program, the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, and the Florida Forest Service.