- Annual parking decals are valid for the calendar year purchased (January 1 to December 31) prorating not available.
- Annual parking decals are good for use at any of the 6 county operated salt water ramps.
- Annual permit decal must be permanently affixed on the trailer bowstand or tongue to be valid.
- Vehicle and trailer must be parked in a designated parking space. Vehicles parked in non-designated trailer parking spaces may be ticketed.
- Parking decals do not allow for overnight or multiday storage of the vehicle, trailer and vessel. Boat ramp parking is intended for boats that are in use only. Violations may result in ticketing, towing and or revocation of parking permit.
- Permit does not guarantee a boat trailer parking space. Boat trailer parking spaces are available on a first-come, first-served basis only.
- Permits are non-refundable and non-transferable.
- Lost or stolen decals require a Lost/Stolen Decal Form to be completed and submitted to the Parks Customer Service office.
- Upon approval, the permittee will be notified so that they can remit payment online if a form of payment was not already included.
