Every attempt will be made by the COUNTY to give the CONSULTANT at least 24 hours advance notice when his/her services are required. In the case of normal and scheduled vacation periods or training, the COUNTY will give at least seven days advance notice.

The veterinary responsibilities described below are only applicable for the charges and rates submitted by the CONSULTANT in Exhibit "B".

All of the services required hereunder shall be performed by the CONSULTANT or under his/her supervision.

A. RELIEF VETERINARY SERVICES

The CONSULTANT is in a temporary caretaker position and in the absence of the regular staff veterinarian will be responsible for overseeing the overall health of incoming, impounded, and outgoing animals. The CONSULTANT is to work closely with the clinic staff, clinic coordinator, kennel supervisor, and Division director in assuring that appropriate medical care is given to all animals under the responsibility of the Division according to established policies. While the CONSULTANT may provide direction to the Division veterinary assistants, it is also expected that the CONSULTANT will perform actual hands-on medical work with animals in the clinic.

The tasks of providing veterinary care for animals impounded at the Animal Care and Control shelter are not the same as would normally be expected from a private clinic treating/caring for private animals. The large volume of animals and limited resources dictate veterinary strategies different than those in a private hospital.

Essentially, the Animal Care and Control Division is responsible for assuring that all impounded animals are kept comfortably in an environment that is as disease free as possible. Injured/sick animals are given sufficient and appropriate medical care to keep them comfortable and free of pain. Extensive surgery and complex medical treatments are generally inappropriate. For severely injured/sick animals, the CONSULTANT will decide if such animals should be immediately euthanized (according to state law). The CONSULTANT will need to give attention to diseases that are easily communicable from animal-to-animal or animal-to-human.

The specific regular responsibilities of the CONSULTANT, include but are not limited to:

1. Provide, coordinate, and direct appropriate medical care for small animals impounded at the Palm Beach County Animal Care and Control shelter according to established procedures. This care will include routine animal examinations performed by the CONSULTANT, as well as prescribing and administering drugs for sick/injured animals.
2. Direct the animal case work performed by Animal Care and Control personnel who are providing routine and medical care of impounded animals. Veterinary assistants are expected to perform routine medical procedures under the direction and supervision of the CONSULTANT.
3. Perform medical treatments and analyses for adopted animals. This includes heartworm check, fecal analysis for internal parasites, and other laboratory analyses that may be appropriate or warranted depending on the species and health of each particular animal. The CONSULTANT will be responsible for the actual physical examination of each animal that is to be adopted. The CONSULTANT, in conjunction with standard Division policy, will make the final decision as to an animal's fitness for adoption.
4. Surgically sterilize pre-scheduled adopted dogs and cats, older than eight weeks of age, unless medically inappropriate.
5. Monitor impounded animals with potentially dangerous diseases that may affect animal or human populations. The CONSULTANT is responsible for initiating appropriate medical responses to such occurrences.
6. Use and direct personnel in the use of existing diagnostic equipment (x-ray, processor, etc.) for injured/sick animals where additional testing is indicated or required.

B. FACILITIES AND EQUIPMENT

During the term of this Contract, the COUNTY shall provide the CONSULTANT with necessary drugs, surgical equipment, surgical apparel and supplies used to perform sterilization of animals and medical care. The COUNTY will attempt to comply with the CONSULTANT'S request for preferred surgical equipment, materials, gowns, gloves, and drugs as may be reasonably necessary for the CONSULTANT to perform duties as required by this Contract. The COUNTY will provide a full time veterinary assistant for assistance in the surgery area.

Medical supplies used to treat injured/sick animals will be provided by the COUNTY, unless the animal is treated at an alternately approved veterinary clinic.
