Thereafter, in 1992, the Board approved Resolution (R92-1803) changing the title of the "Palm Beach County Correctional Planning Committee" to the "Palm Beach County Public Safety Coordinating Council" pursuant to Chapter 92-310, Laws of Florida that renamed the Council. On March 14, 2023, the BCC adopted a resolution, (R2023-0334), adding language to ensure consistency with sections 951.26 and 394.657, Florida Statutes, and designating the PSCC as the criminal justice, mental health, and substance use disorder planning council required by section 394.657, Florida Statutes, which placed the County in a position to apply for state funding through the Criminal Justice, Mental Health, and Substance Abuse Reinvestment Grant Program, when available. With this board appointment, 22 of the 23 seats on the PSCC will be filled.
